Lesson plans, notebooks, and annotating

Lesson plans are usually posted on my website by Sunday evening, but this should not take the place of your child writing daily in their planner. The lesson plans could change and this will be reflected in the classroom. I often replace it online too, but it might not be right away.

When I check for annotated notes in their Study Sync book, I will give them between 1-5 points. If they did not do it, it will be a zero. This is one assignment cannot be made up. This should be done in class. Of course, if they are absent, they have extra time.

I do random planner checks and give the students between 1-5 points. If their planner is blank for the past few weeks, they will receive a zero. This cannot be made up either.

Week of October 15th

History

The students are continuing to work on chapter 3. Their interactive notebook will consist of handouts that they have written notes on. All they have to do is glue them to their notebook, add additional notes and draw pictures. This will be due on Wednesday, October 31st.

ELA

The class has started learning about informational/explanatory essays. They did one this past week about the Salem Witch Trials and will be doing two more in the weeks to come.

Character Counts

DRESS UP DAYS NEXT WEEK: Mon: Wear pink/Tues: Twin Day/Wed: Disney/Thurs: 80's/Fri: Hawaiian

Let's try this again.

DONUT GAME PERIOD 3 & 4 YOU'RE UP NEXT!

If the Dolphins beat the Bears on Sunday then I will bring doughnuts for my 3rd/4th period class. They will be available before school, during break, or when they come in. I warned them that if they wait until they come to class at 9:55, the good ones might be gone. Because I'm doing this for my 3rd/4th period class, 2nd period and 5th/6th period may bring a snack (candy/gum etc.) THIS IS ONLY IF THE DOLPHINS WIN ON SUNDAY.
