News & Notes

- All late assignments are due by Monday. This was texted to you on Friday, November 16th through Remind.
- As of now, I am excepting late work for up to two weeks, but when the 2nd semester begins, I will only be excepting work for up to one week.
- Now that I am not coaching (until February), I will be available after school between 30 minutes and 60 minutes. They can work on assignments or get help if needed. Please have them check with me in advance just in case I have to leave early to pick up my son.

Week of November 26th

History

The class will do the last section in chapter 2. They will have some questions to answer in the book, a few worksheets and a quiz on Friday. I will give them the study guide on Tuesday instead of Wednesday. This will give them an extra day to study. There are still students that are not studying for these quizzes and not getting good scores on them.

ELA (3/4 & 5/6 period)

The class will take the Unit 2 pre-assessment on Wednesday They will start a new story in their Study Sync book and will begin writing their Martin Luther King Jr. essay. The essay is not about him, but about “fulfilling the dream” and how the Poverello House is working to achieve the goal by helping the needs of others. They will have three sources to help them. I already went over what each paragraph should contain and they should have written everything down in the packet I gave them. This will be due on Tuesday, December 4th.

CLASSROOM DONATIONS

With cold season coming up, donations are always accepted for the class. We are always in need of hand sanitizer and Kleenex. Thank you!

I hope you and your family had a nice Thanksgiving.

Four weeks until Christmas break.
