News & Notes

*All assignments have been put into the grade book for the week. They will have no more assignments on Thursday or Friday other than a district test and writing prompt that will be worked on in the classroom only. They will still have their 5-2 quiz on Friday.

*When they read a story in their Study Sync book, they should be annotating the story and writing definitions as well so that they can use it for their test. Some students are not, and the result is a low test grade. They can no longer retake a test but will be allowed to drop their lowest test score. But if they are not annotating, they will have the same result.
