Quick Notes

Several students have started the 2nd semester with a D or F. I posted grades as well as missing assignments from only the last week on the back cupboard. Students that are highlighted will need to come to my room during their lunch Tuesday-Thursday. Missing assignments between January 7th and January 10th are no longer excepted. Please continue to check their planner on a daily basis.

Just a reminder from my last newsletter

- I will no longer be putting in their grade as a percent in the gradebook. I will put in the actual points they receive on an assignment.
- I will only allow one week to turn in any late work from the day it's due. They will only get 50% of the score, not 70%.
- Of course, absences will have more time.
- If an assignment is missing their number, I will deduct two points from their score.
- No names will be discarded.
- Hoods are never allowed on in class. I will not tell them to take it off, they will have lunch detention.
- 2,000 Read Theory points are due on Friday, May 29th.

ELA

They will be working on a NewsELA assignment and read "Feed" in Study Sync. They will have new notes to write down and glue in their notebook that may be used for their grammar test this week.

History

The class will continue chapter 4 by reading section 3. They'll have more notes for their notebook that must be completed and glued in order to use it for their quiz. There's no reason why anyone should be failing these quizzes unless they are not finishing the notes.

SPRING SPORTS

Spring sports tryouts are coming up! Tryouts begin on Monday, February 3rd immediately after school. Sports this season include: baseball, softball, boys golf, boys volleyball, boys tennis, swimming and track & field. Please remember that all athletes must have a physical examination on file with the school's athletic office. We would like to encourage all of our students to try out for a spring sport.
